

Group Division Manager – Industrial Automation

My client is a successful, privately owned industrial group with several divisions, sales offices and production sites around the world. Innovation, high quality, reliability and customer service are success keys for the leading position in its business. Originally founded more than 100 years ago the group has now a global workforce of around 5'000 people.

The division in the production automation sector is successfully positioned in a highly competitive but above average growing market with global acting, reputed competitors. The division is based in the Geneva area.

Responsibilities:

- Management of the Division in the production automation in a fast growing worldwide organization
- Development, implementation and execution of the strategy in particular in the fields of product and market development
- Successful positioning as the technology leader in a highly competitive but above average growing market with global acting, reputed competitors
- Close cooperation between Production Unit and Business Units (R&D, Marketing, Sales, Customer Support)
- Reporting to CEO / Board

Profile

- Experienced industrial personality with a deep insight knowledge of the production automation, who quickly gets used to work in a rather complex organisational structure
- Provable engineer education (mechanical or electronic), professionally experienced and proven skills in Marketing & Sales (MBA or similar)
- Strongly market and customer driven personality
- Proven experience in an international Organisation
- Entrepreneurial, strategically thinking and acting person
- Acts professionally in a dynamic and international field
- Perfectly fluent in English and French, German and/or other language skills are an asset
- Strong personality; standing/assertiveness, paired with high social competence to work successfully in a decentralized organisation (leadership)
- High leading-, convincing- and team-competence for the orientation of a successful management and leadership of a fast growing company segment
- High endurance and mobility
- Full identification with vision, values and targets of the Group
- Fits in the company cultur (performance driven, high loyalty, owner oriented)

Are you interested? Please send your application by E-Mail to Matthias Brägger or call him for more information.